

Advisory Committee

Roles & Responsibilities

The Gallus Academy Advisory Committee is responsible for:

- Attending Advisory Committee meetings and special events.
- Reviewing meeting agendas and supporting materials prior to Advisory Committee meetings.
- Providing feedback on institutional policies or initiatives to advance quality education.
- Raising awareness of Gallus Academy and supporting student enrollment.
- Providing guidance on timelines, curriculum, and other aspects of campus development, facility enhancements, and operational activities.
- Advising on strategic priorities informed by forward-looking industry, educational, and societal trends.
- Being knowledgeable about the Gallus Academy system and supporting the expansion of affordable, high-quality schools across Africa.
- Providing insights on partnerships and external collaborations that engage partner organisations, institutions and individuals in support of Gallus Academy schools and the Gallus Fund.
- Reviewing and providing recommendations based on academic performance and program outcomes.
- Serving on special committees or task forces when needed.

Who serves on the Gallus Academy Advisory Committee?

- Gallus Academy staff
- ICPD staff
- Designated representatives from each partnering organisation
- Stakeholders from collaborating organizations such as universities, associations, government agencies
- Gallus Academy alumni