What is the ELISA Network?

The ELISA Network is an initiative established by ICPD (the International Centre for Professional Development), an NGO based in the United States of America. The mission of ELISA is to showcase Africa-focused entrepreneurs and leaders from across the globe, helping them learn from each other and transform their ideas into sustainable enterprises that create jobs in Africa.

The ELISA business network provides tools and resources needed to bootstrap business ventures. Our work supports and trains a cohort of high-potential entrepreneurs annually through the ELISA Scholars program and provides a platform for networking and learning through the ELISA portal and our virtual events. Our network is multi-sectoral.
