

Advisory Council

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Attend Advisory Council meetings and special events
- Be committed to transforming Africa and fostering entrepreneurialism in Africa
- Be knowledgeable about the Entrepreneurial & Leadership Initiative for a Sustainable Africa (ELISA) and support the growth of the initiative
- Review agenda and supporting materials prior to Advisory Council meetings
- Serve on special committees or task forces
- Engage companies, institutions, and individuals by encouraging membership, summit attendance, sponsorship, and external partnerships
- Amplify awareness of the ELISA network and promote the ELISA summit
- Invite special guests to attend and participate in ELISA events
- Review and make recommendations on ELISA planning, marketing materials, messaging, and campaign extensions

Who serves on the ELISA Advisory Council?

- A designated chairperson
- Key leaders, visionaries, and stakeholders representing collaborating companies, government agencies, workforce and career development organizations, professional societies, trade associations, trade schools, non-profit organizations, and academic institutions
- Staff from the International Center for Professional Development